Re: In Touch Concepts, Inc. v. Cellco P'ship
13 Civ. 1419 (PKC)

Dear Magistrate Judge Freeman:

We write jointly on behalf of all parties and further to the parties' March 18, 2014 letter. In that letter, we had sought Your Honor's approval of a proposed framework that would bring this case to resolution by means of a stipulation of dismissal. That stipulation would dismiss all current claims and counterclaims without prejudice, but the parties did not intend to execute and file the document until after Judge Castel had ruled on a pending motion for reconsideration filed by Plaintiff. The parties would like to schedule a brief call with Your Honor to confirm that the Court will "so order" the stipulation at the appropriate time, so that the parties can cease discovery that would otherwise be occurring.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Philip R. Sellinger
